Exhibitor feedback

Aleksandr Trofimychev,
Development Director at VEGA

"We are very pleased with our participation in Neftegaz. The result exceeded all our expectations. We liked its management. We are planning to take part in it next season."

Ekaterina Kurbanova,
Head of Marketing at KROHNE

"To be honest, we weren't expecting such a large number of visitors but our concerns were unwarranted. It was the targeted customers who came to see us. Apparently, the pandemic has contributed to this, and people are hungry for information. We have received requests for information about the equipment we exhibit here from target customers. We plan to take part in Neftegaz in future. It is, after all, a central event for us every year. There is no way we can miss it."

Dmitry Shakhov,
Deputy Director General at Sintek

"We always look forward to Neftegaz. For us, it goes in the format of talks gathering people who have known each other for many years and who need to talk to each other in person. Our industry requires constant networking. And those who don't attend the exhibition are missing out on important trends. We're showcasing a number of our products here. There are contracts, there are new projects, and there are new industries that are very interested in us. Times are not easy. And only by investing in advertising, you will get priority in the future."
